The French Gardener Problem

A Gardener is designing a garden in the modern French formal style. The garden is a square with side length S and M is the midpoint of each side of the square. The Gardener wants to know the area of the brick portion (the octagon) in terms of S.

sidelength=S

M